CLASS SONG

(Tune—"April Love")

We, the Senior Class, will share our memories,
We, who've strived so hard to set our destiny.
We've shared the blame of each right or wrong.
Fairfield, to you, we dedicate this song.
You're the most important part within our lives today.
Tomorrow we will leave you, on our separate ways.
We're leaving now, and though we may be crying,
We will always love "Old Fairfield High".

CLASS COLORS ..... Light Blue and White

CLASS FLOWER ..... Yellow Rose

CLASS MOTTO ..... "To the stars through difficulties."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

As we prepare to leave twelve years of school life behind us, we now think of some unforgettable moments of this important period of our lives.

In 1946, we entered first grade. Miss Albright welcomed us to this new adventure in life. Friday was our favorite day because we were permitted to bring ice cream bars to class after lunch.

In second grade, we were divided into two classes with Miss Bierman and Mrs. Smith as teachers.

Mrs. Martin greeted us in the third grade. This was the year she broke the paddle on Raymond Lodge for lifting up a girl's dress.

We had a memorable time in the fourth grade with Miss Cabell as our teacher. On Arbor Day we showed our patriotic spirit by planting a tree, which is still in the front yard of the school.

Fifth grade gave us our first experience with a male teacher, Mr. Snyder. This year the more fortunate earned a trip to Niagara Falls for selling newspaper subscriptions.

This year Mr. Smith directed the class of 1958 to an acting success in the operetta "Spider Web Hollow" while Miss Schwab helped us with "the three R's.

Seventh grade! Junior High—here we are! Everyone worked hard selling magazines, and as a result we won Elmer, the goat, from the rest of the High School. Our class officers were: President—John Martin; V. President—Paul Esenwein; Secretary-Treasurer—Ernie Guindon. Our adviser was Mr. Ossoff.

Eighth grade—The Junior High won the County Field Day trophy at the Lisbon Fairgrounds, thanks to the athletic ability of the boys and girls who participated. Class officers were: President—Patty Graham; V. President—Carol Weikart; Secretary—Maxine McCall. Miss Greenisen was our adviser.

We've finally made it—High School! The Initiation and The Return Party were the highlights of our Freshman Year. With Mr. DeVincent at the head. our officers were: President—Carol Weikart; V. President—Ronald Workman; Secretary-Treasurer—Pat Converse; Student Council Representative—Jane Stacey.

Mr. Warner wiggled his mustache when he saw us coming, but we were finally accepted. This year we were busy selling sweatshirts and Fairfield emblems. The officers were: President—Maxine McCall; V. President—Pat Converse; Secretary—Carol Weikart; Treasurer—Jane Stacey; Student Council Representative—Gary Wilms.

In our Junior year Ernie Guindon upset Miss Mercure by introducing a snake into English class. Oh! Those childish antics! Our officers for this year were: President—Carol Weikart; V. President—Pat Converse; Secretary—Leah Yealey; Treasurers—Marian Mazzone and Irene Digman; Student Council Representative—Paul Esenwein. This year the girls were High School Basketball Champions in the Intermurals. "Tattletale", our first BIG stage production, directed by Mrs. Anderson, was a howling success.

We've finally reached our goal. Twelve years of work, fun, excitement, disappointments, and final success, we hope, have been accomplished. Our guiding forces this last year were: President—Lee DeRhodes; V. President—Marge Hepburn: Secretary—Carol Weikart; Trasurer—Marian Mazzone; Student Council Representative—Judy Snyder. Mr. DeSanti was our home room teacher and our advisor for the Black and White and the Comet.

This tree was planted by the Class of 1958 when we were in fourth grade. At that time we were told that we could have our Senior pictures taken beside it. Below are those members of the class who helped to plant the tree.

CLASS PROPHECY

Scene: A witch's house. The witch apears to be saying:

"Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn, and cauldron bubble."

A knock at the door, the class
President enters and says:

"I have come to find out what the future holds for the Class of fifty-eight."

While stirring the contents of the cauldron the witch replies:

"For the year of nineteen hundred and sixty-eight,
I foretell the following things for the class of fifty-eight:

You, Lee DeRhodes, the class president, will be our ambassador to England.

Margie Hepburn, the vice-president, will be named the best-dressed woman of the year.

The librarian of the New York Pulic Library will be the class secretary, Carol Weikart.

Marian Mazzone, the class treasurer, will be the Columbiana County treasurer.

The student-council representative, Judy Snyder, will be named the champion woman bowler of the year.

For the other members of the class I can see many more good things.

Paul Miner, for example, will be the first man to go to the moon.

Carol Bell will own the Howard Johnson Bell chain of restaurants.

The famed Hollywood fashion designer will be your own Marilyn Justice.

Linda Zeitler, who has shown ability in cosmetology, will be the personal hair dresser of a notable person.

A large orphanage in Texas will be owned by Doris Nesselrotte.

Miriam Zimmerman will be completing her trip around the world.

The Broadway Hit of the year will star Bonnie Sinsley.

Dale Bender will be racing horses in the Kentucky Derby.

The Dean of Women at Ohio State will be your classmate, Patty Converse.

The winner of the Mrs. America Contest for 1968 will be Barbara Jones.

Bill Baker will be the head Choreographer of the Arthur Murray Studios.

The new football coach at Yale University will be your classmate and former high school player, Paul Esenwein.

Dave Brothers will be a Pan American Air Line Pilot.

The girl who will model all the latest designs for "Vogue" will be Carol Keslar.

That super jet sports car which just whizzed by was driven by Bill Gorby who will design THE sports car of 1970.

Louie Groubert will be the sport's newscaster on A.B.C. television.

At Carnegie Hall I see Charlotte Snyder who will be a famous concert pianist returning for more engagements.

Jim Hess will be a General in the Air Force.

The famous oil painter at the Picasso Art Institute will be Leah Yealey.

Last, but not least, is Jim Palmer who will be the chief butcher of the Twenty-first Century Supermarket.

—Marian Mazzone

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Fairfield School, do hereby declare this our last will and testament of 1958. To our loving underclassmen, we hereby bestow all of our valuable possessions, memories, and talents.

Bill Baker wills his ability to stay out of trouble to the Junior boys.

Carol Bell wills her quietnes to Dolly Baker.

Dale Bender leaves his football suit to Larry Pepple, which was willed to him by Jesse Smith.

Dave Brothers wills his awkwardness to his brother, Danny.

Pat Converse wills her love of the outdoores to anyone who doesn't mind colds,insects, or wet feet.

Lee DeRhodes leaves his job of Senior Class President to anyone who can co-ordinate twenty-five kids at one time.

Paul Esenwein leaves his position as quarterback to anyone who can take a lot of bloody noses.

Bill Gorby wills his extra parts of his car to anyone who knows what they are for.

Louie Groubert wills his ability to be right halfback to anyone who thinks he can fill it.

Marge Hepburn wills her love of sports to all the underclassmen who don't like gym.

Jim Hess leaves his ability to pass without working to anyone who needs it.

Barb Jones leaves her quietness to her sister, Beverly.

Marilyn Justice wills her job of art editor to Meryl Esenwein.

Carol Keslar wills her ability to cause a riot accidently to anyone who talks when he should be listening.

Marian Mazzone leaves the Treasurer's book to anyone who wants a headache.

Paul Miner wills his love of teachers to Jean Converse.

Doris Nesselrotte wills her brother, Herb, to anyone who can tame him.

Jim Palmer leaves his ability to get into so much trouble to Jerry Kaster.

Bonnie Sinsley wills her love of dancing to anyone with a lot of energy.

Charlotte Snyder leaves her position on the annual staff to anyone with a lot of study halls.

Judy Snyder wills her ability to get into so many unusual predicaments to anyone who doesn't like a calm life.

Carol Weikart leaves her cheerleading ability to anyone who needs the exercise.

Leah Yealey wills her ability to play cymbals to anyone who wants to be a nervous wreck.

Linda Zeitler wills her height to Judy Cambell.

Miriam Zimmerman wills her ability to get under Mr. Guiler's skin, to anyone who wants to try it.

To the Faculty we bestow enough patience to get through the next year. To the Juniors we will our wonderful hom eroom teacher and adviser, Mr. DeSanti. To the Sophomores we will the joys and sorrows of being a Junior. To the Freshmen we bestow the joy of looking forward to being a Senior.

Individual FOOTBALL SNAPS

William "Bill" Baker
Right End

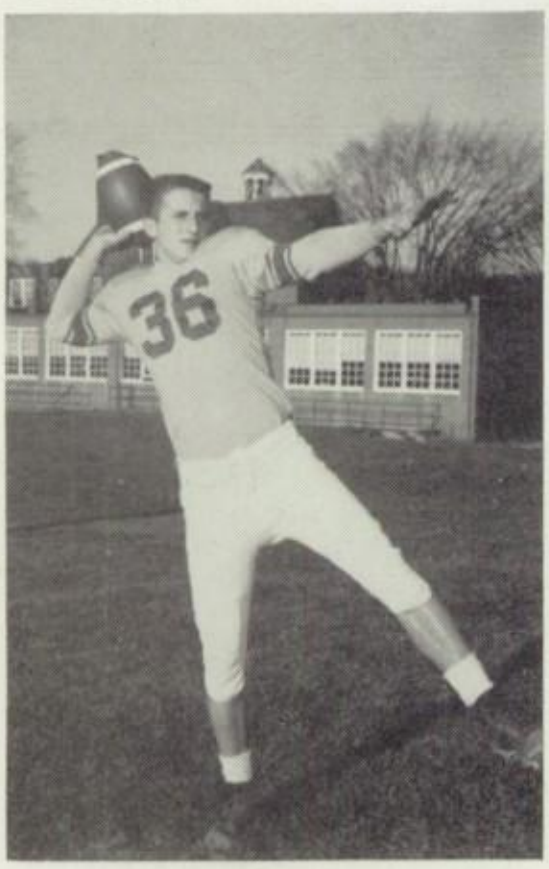
Bill was the favorite receiver for most of Paul Esenwein's passes, catching three for "pay dirt". On punt return and kick-offs, Bill could be depended on for excellent blocking and to open the field for the backs.

Kenneth Woods
Coach

Piloted the rebels for the second consecutive year, after heading New Waterford's Trojans in previous years.

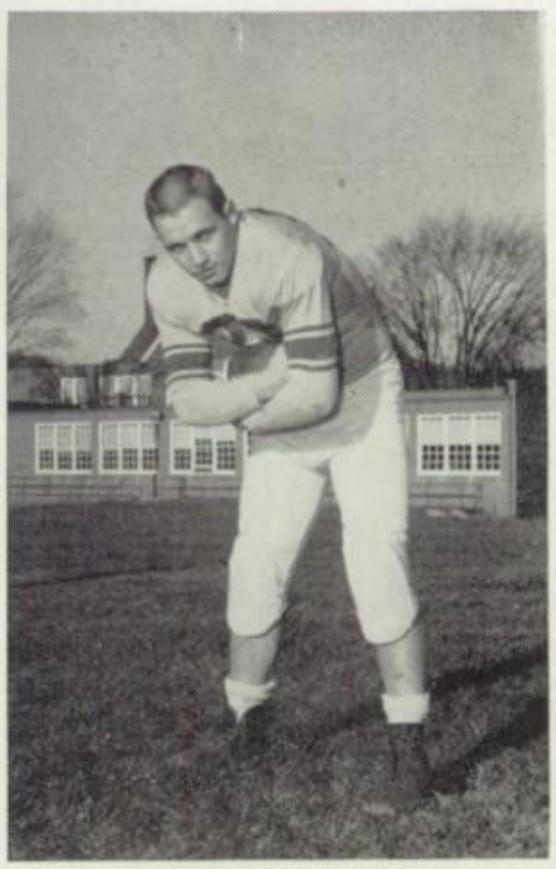
Dale Bender
Linebacker

A big threat on defense and a very vicious tackler. Dale was barely pushing 130 pounds but put every ounce into his body-smashing tackles.



Paul Esenwein
Quarterback

Called the signals for the Rebels in their successful 1957 campaign. Paul, a Senior, played end the year before but was switched to the backfield to give the Rebels an added punch in their passing attack.



David "Dave" Brothers
Fullback

Dave topped scoring honors for the Rebels, receiving honorable mention in the county and named to the All Inter-County team. The players were chosen from the teams making up the Inter-County League.

Individual FOOTBALL SNAPS

Louis "Little Lou" Groubert
Halfback

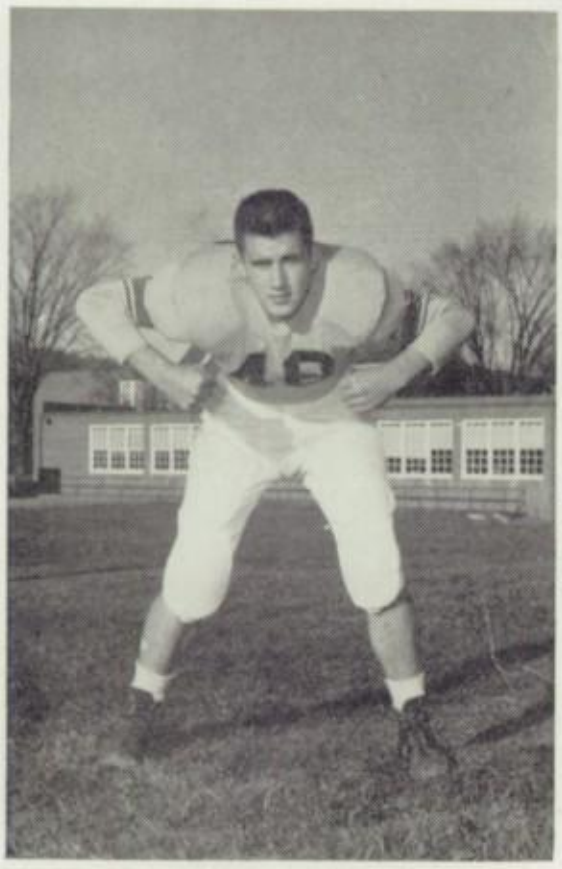
The Rebel famed "Little Lou" was the fastest man on the squad. Lou was not fleet-footed but could break through an open field like a rabbit through a woods. Lou was a consistant scorer and could always be depended upon for extra yardage around end.

Robert "Bob" Cope
Left End

Bob, rangy and tall, had the build for an end. Always "clowning around", Bob never let a dull moment go by. He introduced tobacco chewing, which the team picked up at once; however, after turning green, they soon abandoned the idea. Bob will be the one to watch in '58.

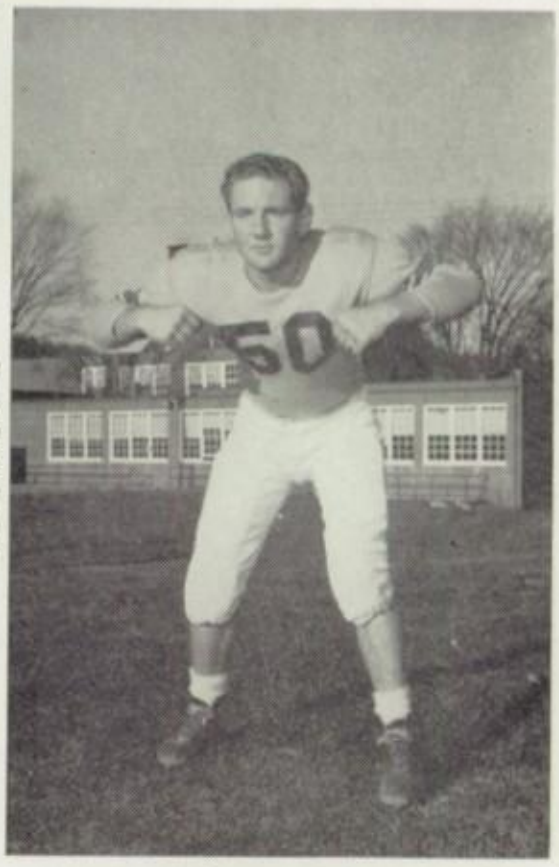
David "Bo" Groubert

Was brother Lou's contemporary in the Backfield, running as the other half back. Bo wasn't too strong on the scoring end but could "pack the mail" when called upon to do so. He could cover ground almost as fast as Lou, and with a strong wind at his back, he fairly flew.



Larry Peppel
Left Tackle

Larry, the only Freshman on the "Starting eleven", weighed in at 190. Inexperienced but rugged, Larry learned the ropes quickly and was a main cog in the Rebel line.



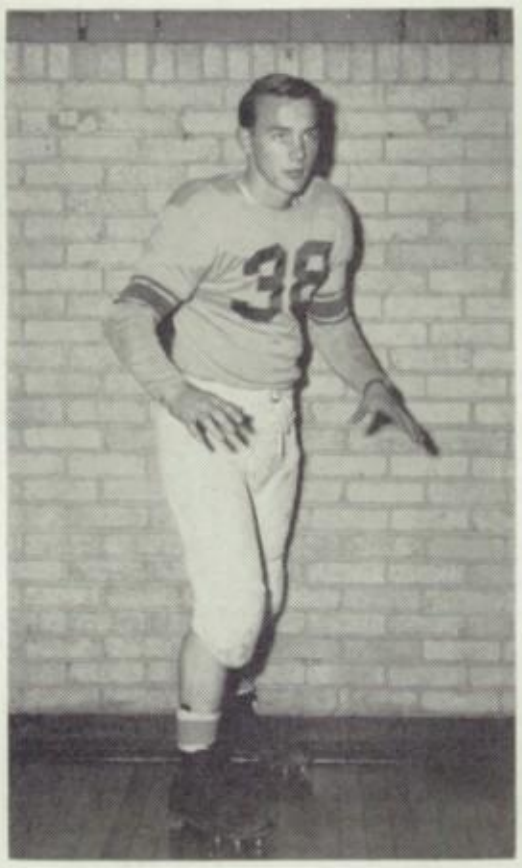
John Untch
Right tackle

John held the center position in '56 but was shifted to tackle for more support on the strong side of the line. He is a Senior and will be greatly missed next year.

Individual FOOTBALL SNAPS

Gerald "Jerry" Arthurs

Although only a Sophomore, was the dependable "first string" center. With his height and determination he should be a leading man in the '58 line-up.



William "Bill" Barnhouse

Was an outstanding guard in his Junior year. In spite of the fact that he could not practice with the team, he played in part of the games in his Senior year. There were few yards made by opponents through his side of the line.

Joseph "Joe" Costanzo

A Junior, played guard for the Rebels in '57. He was short but stocky, and he proved to be a great asset to the team.

Ronald "Ronnie" Bender
Guard

Ronnie was small in size, but he made his presence known. Many a time, the other team saw a hole, but Bender always found himself in it.

James "Jim" Hess
Guard

Is a Senior this year and has played football in all four years of high school. He always fought to the finish, even though he lost quite a few teeth in the process. The team will miss Jim in the coming years.

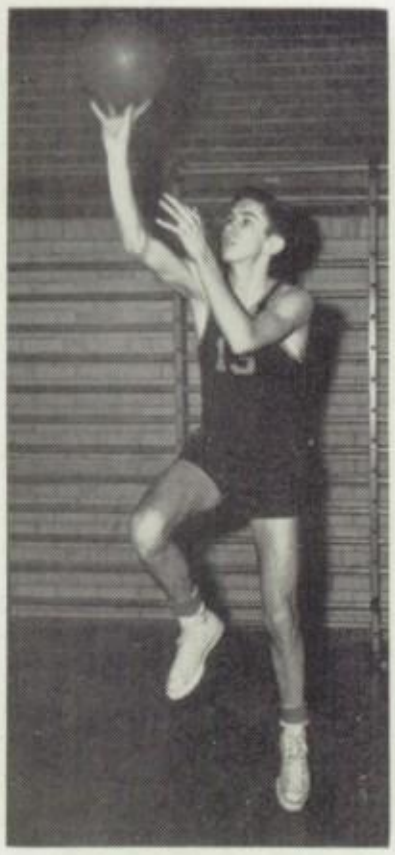
Earl Wolfgang—Mgr., Bob Cope, Paul Esenwein, Tom Russell, Chuck Olnhausen, Laverne Keslar, Bill Gorby, Oliver Cooper, Paul Miner, Bill Baker, Joe Costanzo, Louis Groubert, Dave Groubert, Coach Ken Woods.

A TEAM—"A group of persons associated together to form a side." —Webster's Dictionary



Charles Olnhausen "Chuck"

Played opposite Bill. Chuck is a very good ball handler and possesses every thing needed for an excellent player. Chuck's set shot seldom missed when he was within range. His jump shot is a fade-away type that is hard to block, and his drives are terrific. He has an uncanny way of putting the correct "English" on the ball to hit practically impossible shots.

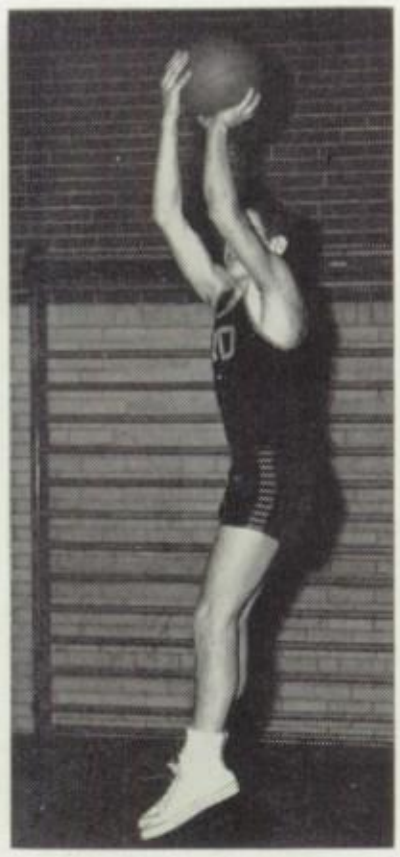
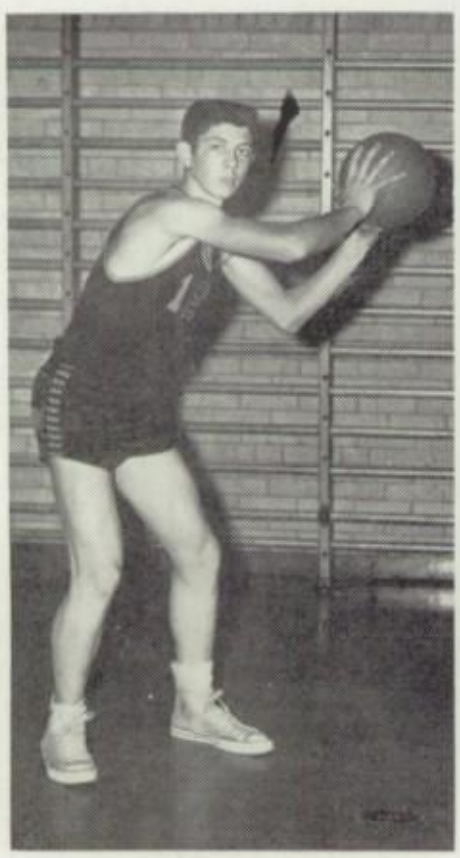
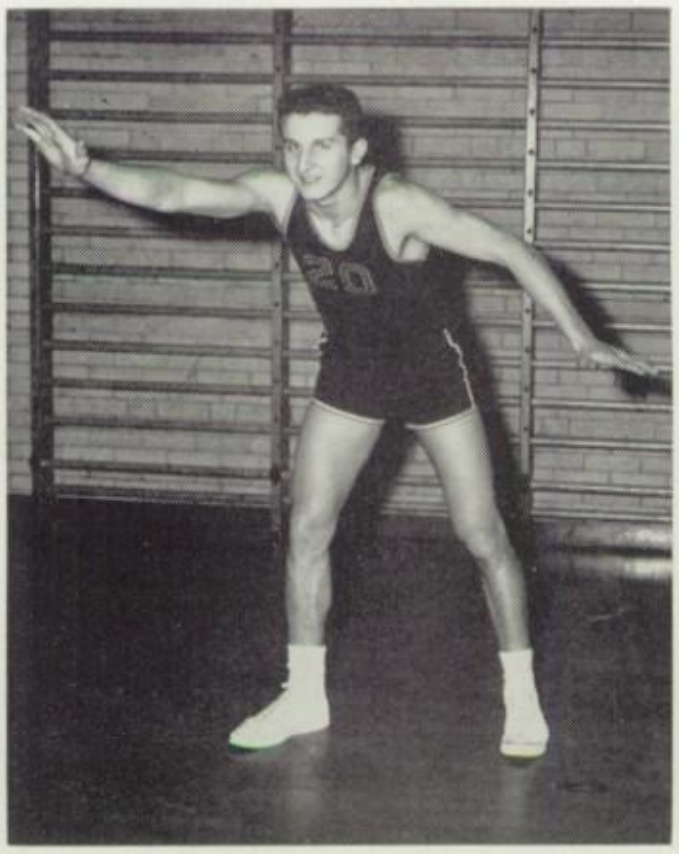
Occupied the left side of the hardwood. Bill is one of the three letter-men from last year's Comets. He started the season well but hit a mid-season slump that stopped him cold. Bill came out of the slump in the last few games to end his career with honor.





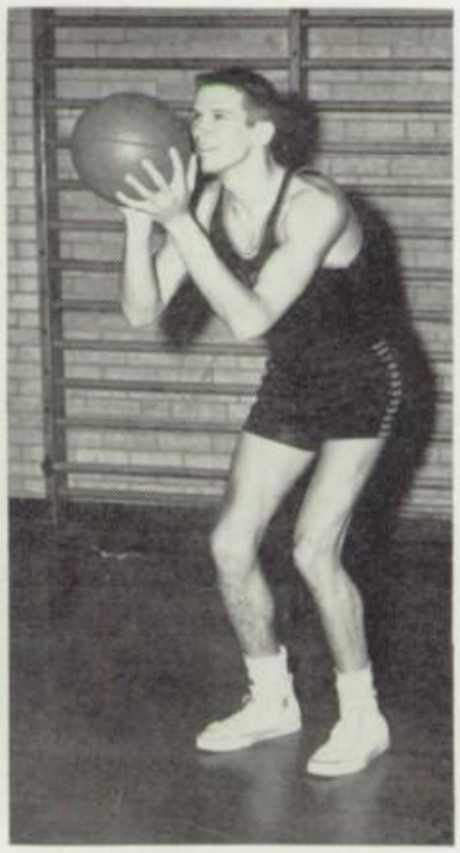
Laverne Keslar "Ernie"

Junior, takes to the hardwood like a duck to water. Ernie is easy-moving and as graceful and co-ordinated as one could be. Although not a high-scorer, he is consistent and can always be counted on when points are most needed.



Paul Esenwein

Senior, has been a varsity letterman since his Sophomore year. Paul is a back-court man who specializes in foul shots. He sports the best foul shooting average of the squad, shooting more than any one player.



Robert Cope "Bob"

Junior, reigned as the "big man" of the Rebels, standing 6' 2" to give the Rebels rebounding power. Bob is the proud possesser of a jump shot that has yet to be though Bob is only a Junioir, he will be unable to play next year because of age specifications.

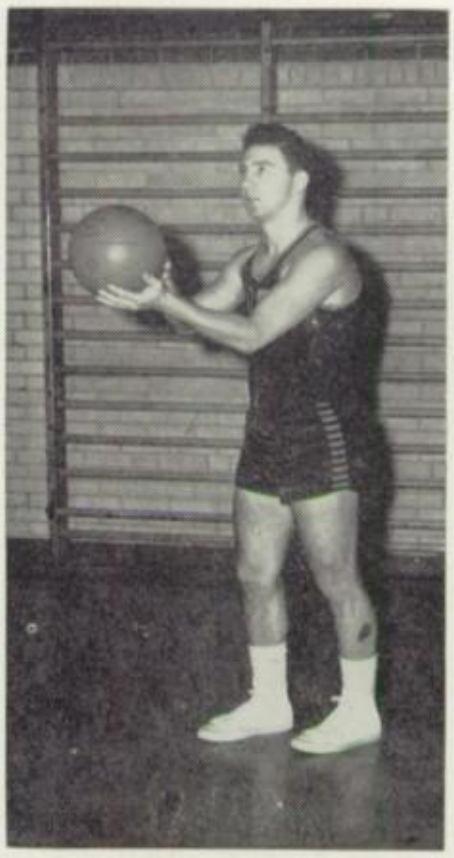
Fairfield High Basketball Personalities

Paul Miner

Senior, was the set shot artist of the squad. When in the clear Paul could let fly a shot that very seldom missed.

Oliver Cooper

Junior, is left-handed and possesses a jump shot that is most effective in the corners. Oliver played Reserve ball his Freshmen year at F.H.S. but attended Barnesville Boarding School last year.

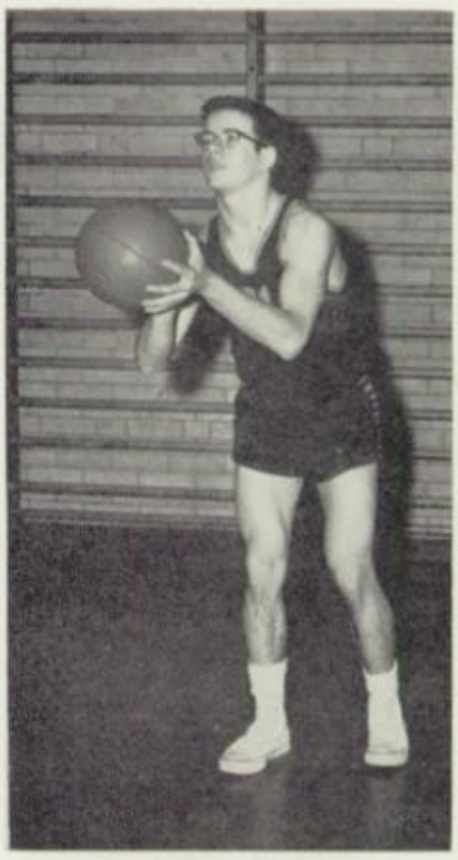


Joseph Costanzo "Joe"

Will be a big help to the Rebels net year. Joe's set shot from outside has a very soft touch that eases through the nets.

Louis Groubert "Lou"

Has played basketball only during his Junior and Senior years. Lou has a terrific jump shot that never misses.



David Groubert "Dave"

Junior, played Reserve basketball last year and will be a great help, defensively next year. Although short in stature, he is high in quality.
